Gardeners put on a bloomin' good show...

GREEN-FINGERED gardeners in Burscough had a bloomin' good time at the first gardening competition run by the parish council.

West Lancs Mayor, Councillor Liz Savage presented prizes for the first Bloomin' Burscough Competition organised by the Parish Council to celebrate the area's many keen gardeners.

Residents across Burscough were invited to take part in two categories: best front garden, which was won by Norma Mackrell or, best individual or group of hanging baskets or planters, which was won by Linda Johnson. The winners each took home a £100 prize and their names were engraved on a shield while a £50 'highly commended' prize was given to the runner-up in each category, Des Fairclough and Jeff Baldwin.

Judging took place during the first two weeks of August.

FUNDING CRISIS AT WOMEN'S REFUGE

Future of West Lancs centre hangs in the balance after council chiefs propose cuts

Report by Henry James

THE future of West Lancashire Women's Refuge is hanging in the balance as a result of County Council spending cuts.

Funding from Lancashire County Council - the £10 million 'Supporting People' fund - is used to staff the nine refuges in the county.

In having to make £262 million of budget cuts, - County chiefs have proposed ending this funding for the centres. Together with other recently announced council cuts, West Lancashire's Women's Refuge, known as The Liberty Centre, now faces the threat of closure, it is claimed.

In response to the 'dire situation' bosses at The Liberty Centre, which is based in Skelmersdale and also has a drop-in centre in Ormskirk, have started a petition to fight for its future. The petition makes an appeal to Lancashire County Council to 'review their decision to withdraw funding for all nine refuges in Lancashire.'

It continues... "we want Lancashire County Council to reconsider their position and look again at keeping funding available for these vital services."

Chief executive at The Liberty Centre, Eleanor Maddocks said: "We have been in West Lancashire for 30 years and it will be very sad if we have to close because of the cuts.

" If refuges are to close where are women going to go if it is not safe where they are living through domestic abuse. One woman is murdered every three days in this country because of domestic abuse. I am calling on Lancashire County Council to review the situation. I would appeal to people to go onto the website at change.org and sign our petition."

Advocacy.

Uncertain future: Eleanor Maddocks, (CEO of The Liberty Centre), Padmini Athma (admin officer) Andy Bennett (supporting male victims) Maureen Fazal (vice chair) ponder their next move.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper says the announcement comes at a time when the government is looking to reduce the housing benefit payments for those in supported living. She has recently attended a Commons debate on the issue. She said victims fleeing domestic violence often rely on these housing benefit payments to cover the cost of renting a room in a women's refuge giving them safety and sanctuary.

Literary themed talks at Hobnob coffee club

THE next three meetings of the Hobnob coffee morning club will all have a literary theme!

Meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month from 11am to 12.15pm at Aughton Village Hall and members of the public are welcome to enjoy a cuppa and a chat, as well as talks by guest speakers and themed mornings.

Hobnob secretary, Julia Woolgar, said: "Great literature connects people and reading aloud brings stories to life!

"On August 24, we will have a shared reading of The Doll's House by Katherine Mansfield. On September 14 we will have the opportunity for everyone to share their favourite poems and on September 28, we will look at the history of traditional tales, nursery rhymes and limericks."

Council wave the flag for seafarers

WEST Lancs council chiefs will fly a unique flag next month to raise awareness of the UK's dependence on Merchant Navy seafarers.

West Lancashire Borough Council will fly the Red Ensign on the flagstaff outside the council offices on Derby Street in Ormskirk, at 10am on Friday, September 2 – national Merchant Navy Day,

Members of the public are welcome to go along the ceremony, which will be attended by Cllr Liz Savage, Mayor of West Lancashire; Cllr Ian Moran, Leader of West Lancashire Borough Council; The Council's Armed Forces Champion Cllr Terry Devine; the Mayor's Chaplain, Fr Godric Timney, and senior Council officers.

The Council is supporting a nationwide call from the Seafarers UK charity and the Merchant Navy Association for the Merchant Navy's official flag to be flown on public buildings and landmark flagstaffs.

The Red Ensign flag will be flown outside the council offices

'The UK owes a debt of gratitude to the seafarers and the flag raising is an opportunity for us all to pay tribute'

Cllr Liz Savage said: "I am delighted the Council has been given the opportunity to recognise the Merchant Navy by flying the Red Ensign. The UK owes a debt of gratitude to the seafarers and the flag raising is an opportunity for us all to pay tribute to the work that they do."

As an 'island nation' the UK relies on Merchant Navy seafarers for 95% of imports, including half of the food that we eat.

The UK has the largest ports industry in Europe. 75% of our exports (by volume) are shipped from UK ports.

The view to Pendle Hill from Christ Church

Church with quite a view!

...once you've climbed all 110 steps to the top of the tower, that is

The view to Liverpool Bay from the tower

VISITORS will be able to take in the stunning views from the tower at Christ Church in Aughton next month.

The Long Lane church and its tower will be opened up to members of the public from noon to 4pm on Saturday, September 10 – and as well as a concert taking place at the church, there will also be bell-ringers giving a demonstration.

Vicar Ross Moughtin said: "On a clear day the view is incredible – from Anglesey to the Barrow shipyard, from Daresbury in Cheshire to Winter Hill just beyond Bolton.

"It's a long climb but it's worth it – some 110 steps to the top of our church tower, where you are well protected by the parapet.

"Our bell ringers will be giving a demonstration of their demanding craft.

"During the afternoon there will be an ongoing concert in the church as well as an opportunity to walk around the church using a children's trail guide and refreshments will be served."

MP welcomes work to improve run down hospital entrance

Report by Ollie Cowan

CAMPAIGNERS have welcomed works to improve accessibility at one of the entrances to Southport and Formby District General Hospital.

The planned improvements came following complaints West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper received from visitors to the site about the poor condition and lighting on the path leading from the bus stop on Scarisbrick New Road.

The pathway is regularly used by people as a shortcut to get to Scarisbrick New Road and since the revised 385 bus route cut out its journey down Town Lane, it is the only easy means of accessing the hospital by patients and visitors from West Lancashire.

MP Cooper began receiving complaints in October 2015 following the decision by Arriva to move its bus stop from the hospital's front entrance to the road leading to the side entrance, and has written regularly to the hospital's management for updates on a solution.

Following an investigation into who owns the land, sparked by the West Lancashire MP's intervention, the hospital has now begun work to install new street lighting and improve accessibility, including for disabled patients.

The run down entrance to Southport Hospital

> 'Trust has listened to the concerns of residents'

However, she has also raised concerns with the hospital over the distance that patients – especially the disabled and elderly – who travel by bus will need to walk to get to the front entrance whilst the side entrance is closed during the period of works. Rosie Cooper said: "I am pleased that the hospital trust has listened to the concerns of residents and taken action to improve the accessibility of the side entrance.

"It is important that patients who rely on public transport are able to confidently use the path leading from the bus stop, especially during the winter months when it is dark and the current lack of street lighting is a real issue.

"I have also written to the trust management to raise my concerns around the extra distance these patients will need to walk whilst this work is taking place and await their response."

Police increasingly concerned after teen girl vanishes

Report by Danielle Thompson

AN APPEAL has been launched to find a 14 year old girl who went missing from Ormskirk more than two weeks ago.

Destiny Marston was last seen in McDonalds restaurant on Park Road around 5pm on Sunday, 7 August.

She is white, of slim build, 5ft 2in tall with long, light brown hair. She was wearing a grey hooded top, stonewashed denim jeans and white trainers when she disappeared. Destiny has links to Salford and Southampton.

The police are becoming increasingly concerned for her welfare and are asking for the public's help in finding her.

PC David Hogan, from Lancashire Constabulary said: "Destiny has been missing for days now and we would urge anyone who knows of her whereabouts to get in touch with us. We are becoming increasingly worried about her and want to know she is safe. We would also appeal to Destiny, if she sees this plea, to make contact with us."

Anyone with information can contact police on 101.

Much loved Motorfest returns

THE Ormskirk Motorfest, organised by the Aintree Circuit Club is back for another year.

More than 300 cars and motorcycles from all eras of motoring are expected to be on display on Moor Street, Aughton Street and Coronation Park on Sunday August 28.

Among them will be cars of members of the Bentley Drivers Club, which is 80 years old this year and will be bringing a model of Bentley for every decade starting from the 1920s.

Other cars lining up will include fantastic Ferraris, US Muscle cars from the American Auto Club North West and even more weird looking bubble cars.

The vehicles on display will cover over a century of motoring and automotive heritage and history, the oldest vehicle being the locally entered 1906 Franklin of long time Motorfest supporter, David White.

Ormskirk MotorFest is a free event and everyone is welcome.

The fun starts about 11am and runs through until about 5pm. MotorFest visitors can see many of the cars in action and hear the roar of the engines during parade laps around Ormskirk town centre between 2.30pm and 4.30pm.

Northern is providing special trains from Preston to Ormskirk specially for Ormskirk MotorFest so motoring fans can come to the extravaganza from the Preston area. More details can be found at www.northernrailway.co.uk

Former Top Gear presenter Steve Berry is guest commentator and will be one of the judges for the Concours d'Elegance competition in Coronation Park.

The army will also be displaying equipment including an assault course, climbing wall, field guns, trucks and cranes of all shapes.

The public can inspect the equipment and try out the assault course and climbing wall.

She commented: "Making cuts to these housing benefits will heap further financial pressure on refuges that are already collapsing under the strain of government spending cuts to local authorities forcing them to remove funding, essential to keep the refuge doors open."

She added: "The government talks about its commitment to protecting the victims of domestic violence. Talk is all it does it seems.

"In cutting funding to local authorities and cutting welfare support to victims of domestic violence the government's actions on domestic violence tell a different story.

"These refuges, including West Lancashire Women's Refuge, offer a safe place and an escape to many women and their children in West Lancashire.

"On the housing benefits for supported living, the minister offered a review. By the time this review is complete the refuges will have closed their doors for the final time. Government needs to commit to protecting this support for some of the most vulnerable in our communities.

"The consequences of losing the refuges and the lack of an alternative really does not bear thinking about.

" It puts women back in harm's way, with the threat of abuse and violence. This is a backwards step in tackling domestic violence in Britain in 2016."

On the West Lancashire Women's Refuge petition campaign, MP Rosie Cooper said: "I've put my name to the petition. I would strongly urge everyone in West Lancashire who believes in protecting victims of domestic violence from harm to put their name to this petition too."

'This is a backwards step in tackling domestic violence'

A spokesperson for Lancashire County Council said: "The county council faces an unprecedented financial challenge meaning it must make savings of £200m by 2020/21. This has been caused by cuts in Government funding and rising demand for our services

"One of the proposals that formed part of the council's budget was to reduce the non-statutory part of the Supporting People service.

"No decision has been made, however we have run a consultation on the proposals and established a cabinet working group to consider the results.

"The county council's cabinet will make a final decision in September once the results of the consultation and the recommendations of the working group have been published."

Lathom War horses to be honoured

By Danielle Thompson

A THREE-MILE walk is being held to commemorate the thousands of horses that were trained in Lathom for the First World War.

Walkers can meet at Ormskirk Station at 10.30am this Saturday (August 27).

Lathom Park Trust chairman Paul Kenyon said: "The walk will commemorate the thousands of horses which arrived at Ormskirk Station during World War One to be trained at the Lathom Park Remount Depot for war.

"The walk is three and a half miles long leaving Ormskirk Station through the country lanes of Lathom and ending at the historic Lathom Park Chapel which was built in 1500 by the first Earl of Derby, where tea and home made cakes will be served for a small donation.

"Along the way a local historian will be pointing out features and talking about them."

This year's walk is organised by Freshfield Animal Sanctuary and a small donation to them would be welcomed.

Students from across the borough celebrate A Level exam successes

Report by Henry James

STUDENTS from across West Lancashire received their A Level results last Thursday.

There was delight and relief on the faces of many students and staff at Ormskirk School on Thursday morning when this year's results were released.

Headteacher John Doyle commented: "Firstly it is only right that I should congratulate students and staff on their achievements.

"We are in the middle of an unprecedented change in A Level subject matter and assessment which has been a huge challenge to staff and students.

"A significant plank in that reform is the removal of opportunities for multiple re-sits of examinations and the fact that students' pass rate actually increased (only three examinations were failed of the 300 that were entered) is very pleasing.

"Also pleasing was the increase in the proportion of high grades since 2015.

"Nearly 20% of our examination entries were graded at either A* or A which was 5% higher than last year.

"Some of our most able students produced remarkable results which will allow them to pass onto some highly competitive courses at Russell Group universities.

"A growing feature of our Sixth Form is the steadily growing number of students who are taking advantage of the vocational courses we offer.

Pupils at Ormskirk School celebrate their A Level results

"I congratulate the students on these courses, particularly the large number (more than 40% of entries) that were graded at the highest Distinction* grade.

"It is fitting that in the midst of Team GB's success in the Rio Olympics the attributes of hard work, organisation, attention to detail and following the guidance of careful coaching that have proved so successful for our athletes have also ensured that many of our students are able to exceed their own personal best and achieve great things. Well done to them."

Pensioners in Bickerstaffe urged to get techno-savvy

BICKERSTAFFE Parish Council is running a number of adult learning courses from September to December.

The sessions will all be held on Fridays at Bickerstaffe AFC Pavilion - but places must be booked in advance.

A three-hour ICT functional skills (computer skills) taster session will be held from 9.30am-12.30pm on September 16 and a 28-week ICT functional skills course will be held from 9.30am-12.30pm from September 23 to June 30, 2017.

There will also be a five-week course on making the most of iPads from 1.30 to 3.30pm from November 11 – December 9, followed by a three-hour taster session offering tips on buying a PC, laptop or tablet from 1.30 to 4.30pm on December 16.

The courses will all be taught by tutors from Lancashire Adult Learning College and all courses will take place in Bickerstaffe.

Passing the Functional Skills Course gains the student a qualification which can be used for employment purposes. The taster session is to assess if the course is for you - basic literacy and numeracy skills are needed – but if you're in doubt, you can sign up anyway.

For more information or to book a place, call Bickerstaffe Parish Council's clerk on 07715156744.

Mayor Coun Liz Savage chats to unit manager Karen Wareing (right) and Matron Shirley Coward when she visited the Neonatal department at Ormskirk hospital

Mayor enjoys a tour of hospital's neo-natal unit

THE MAYOR of West Lancashire enjoyed a tour around Ormkirk Hospital's Neo-Natal Unit.

Councillor Liz Savage and her consort, Councillor Noel Delaney, visited the unit to speak to staff and see for herself the working of the unit.

She was given an explanation of the vital work undertaken at the centre by unit manager Karen Wareing and matron Shirley Coward.

It is one of the four charities which the Mayor will fundraise for during her year in office – the others being the Artz Centre in Birch Green, The Civic (formerly Ormskirk Civic Hall) and the Birchwood Centre in Skelmersdale.

Farmers asked to share their views on Brexit

FARMERS and landowners are being asked to share their views on Brexit at a series of special County Land and Business Association events to be held in September.

As the Government begins to announce new strategies that will affect the agricultural and environmental landscape for generations to come, the organisation wants to capture the thoughts of its members on the opportunities and risks surrounding the decision to leave the European Union.

The events will take place on September 1st and 2nd at Doncaster and Richmond in Yorkshire, Kirkharle in Northumberland, Penrith in Cumbria and Hoghton in Lancashire.

They will outline what the CLA is currently doing on behalf of its members and include a discussion on key issues such as the Common Agricultural Policy and what could replace it.

Ballot gives young people chance to 'make their mark'

Report by Henry James

A BALLOT that gives young people in the borough the chance to have their say on what issues are discussed at a special session of the UK Youth Parliament (UKYP) at the House of Commons is now underway.

The ballot, called Make Your Mark, was launched on August 12 and will run until Wednesday, October 5.

Votes can be cast online and through ballot papers issued in schools and youth centres by young people aged between 11 and 18. The result will influence what topics are debated by the Youth Parliament at the session in the House of Commons on Friday, November 11, 2016.

Emily Holt, one of Lancashire's elected Members of the Youth Parliament, said: "Young people now have a great opportunity to input to government choices and decisions that will affect our lives.

"I think it is really important that all young people use their vote and say what really matters to them.

"Just by putting a cross in a box for the issues that are the most important to them, a young person is having an influence of local and government policy with a national campaign and year-long consideration by the Youth Select Committee.

"The ballot is now open and I would urge young people to use their vote."

Local Members of the Youth Parliament are working with schools, colleges, youth groups and voluntary groups in their districts to encourage young people to get involved.

There are ten topics on the Make Your Mark ballot paper for young people to choose from.

The five most popular topics will be discussed by MYP's in their House of Commons debate, chaired by John Bercow, speaker of the House of Commons and broadcast live on BBC Parliament.

County Councillor Matthew Tomlinson

Last year, the Make Your Mark ballot surveyed the opinions of over 37,000 young people in Lancashire. This was 5,000 more than in the previous year.

County Councillor Matthew Tomlinson, cabinet member for children, young people and schools, said: "Last year, young people in Lancashire posted more votes than anywhere else in the country, and I'm hoping for similar enthusiasm this time.

"This is an extremely effective way of young people making their voices loud enough to be heard.

"The ballot is now open, and I hope as many young people as possible take part."

The five main issues of concern for Lancashire's young people last year were mental health, tackling racism and discrimination, transport, the Curriculum for Life and the Living Wage.

Members of The Gorsilaure Project in the Democratic Republic of Congo

Nun in new vow to help orphans

by Danielle Thompson

A PARBOLD NUN is appealing for donations to help orphaned children in Africa.

Sister Margaret Rose first went out to the Democratic Republic of Congo 16 years ago to help launch The Gorsilaure Project which takes in destitute children and gives them a home and schooling up to university level.

Run by Father Simon Lumbela at the Gorsilaure Children's Village in Qinsantu, Bas–Congo, the project also has a hospital with maternity and surgical units, as well as overseeing farming, food production and manufacturing schemes.

Although she returned to the UK after three years, 73–year–old Sister Rose, a member of Sister of Notre Dame congregation in Parbold, has continued to work for the project seeking to raise its profile in this country.

The Champion ran an appeal in December and enough funds were raised to buy food for the project, including a special Christmas day meal of chicken and bananas.

But Sister Margaret Rose, who is originally from Scotland but moved to Lancashire three years ago, said that the project is quickly running out of funds, leaving them without enough money to buy food for the orphans.

She said: "The orphans were in dire straits before Christmas but after the Champion article, the project's finance officer, Peter Harding received donations.

"Now though they are quickly running out of funds again and any donations, however small, would be gratefully received.

"The children of the Congo can be prey to unthinkable horrors and the life expectancy there is under 40 years old. The infant and child mortality rates are shocking – six out of 10 children die before their fourth Birthday and many others are pushed into warfare or prostitution.

To donate contact the project's finance officer Peter Harding on 01383 822540 or 07963 606 677.

Uni project to launch first book at festival

By Danielle Thompson

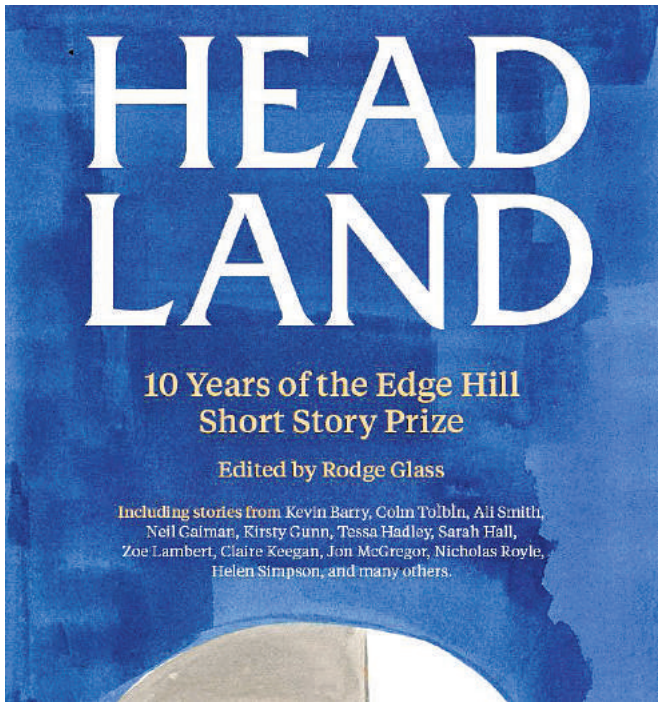
THE EDGE Hill University Press will launch its first book at the Edinburgh International Book Festival this Saturday (August 27).

A joint enterprise with Glasgow-based independent publisher Freight Books, their first publication Head Land is an anthology of previously shortlisted authors that have featured throughout the past ten years of the Ormskirk university's Short Story Prize.

Rodge Glass, co-director of the Edge Hill University Press said that it is an honour to launch a book that showcases outstanding UK and Irish literary talent at one of the biggest book festivals in the world.

He said: "This time last year the Edge Hill University Press was just an idea. Twelve months later, we have our first publication, one that we're incredibly proud of. A glance down the list of contributors to this book highlights the sheer talent of writers across the UK and Ireland, and Head Land is all about spreading the word about this strong, growing tradition.

"There's no better platform than the Edinburgh International Book Festival to celebrate both the new Edge Hill University Press and Head Land itself. The Festival is one of the very finest of its kind in the world. It's where writers and readers come to explore the best in contemporary literature, and to find new literature to love."



HEAD

10 Years of the Edge Hill Short Story Prize
Edited by Rodge Glass
Including stories from Kevin Barry, Colm Tóibín, Ali Smith, Neil Gaiman, Kirsty Gunn, Tessa Hadley, Sarah Hall, Zoe Lambert, Claire Keegan, Jon McGregor, Nicholas Royle, Helen Simpson, and many others.

Head Land will be launched at the Edinburgh International Book Festival

The Edge Hill University Press will publish another three books throughout the next three years. The initiative builds on the University's already established literary profile which includes the nationally recognised Edge Hill Prize for the Short Story. Recently celebrating its tenth year, the Edge Hill Prize is the only UK award that recognises excellence in a published collection of short stories.

Nine year old boy out of intensive care after crash

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a collision close to Scarisbrick which has left a nine-year-old in hospital.

Police were called around 7.40pm on Thursday, August 18 to Southport Road (A570) near Hurlston Hall Golf Club following reports of an accident.

A black Volkswagen Polo traveling eastbound was involved in a collision with a BMW car traveling towards Southport.

A nine-year-old boy, a passenger in the Polo, suffered serious head and neck injuries and was taken by air ambulance to Alder Hey Children's Hospital for treatment. His condition was critical, however he is now out of intensive care but he is still described as "very poorly".

The driver of the BMW, a 32-year-old woman from Ormskirk, suffered a punctured lung, broken ribs, a broken elbow and broken forearm and was taken to Aintree Hospital for treatment.

The road was closed for four hours while accident investigators attended the scene.

Police are appealing for witnesses to come forward following the collision.

The A570 Southport Road between Ormskirk and Scarisbrick

Report by Henry James

Sgt Pat Worden, from Lancashire Police's Roads Policing Unit, said: "At 7.40pm on Thursday, August 18, a two vehicle collision occurred on the A570 Southport Rd, close to Scarisbrick.

"The collision involved a black Volkswagen Polo and a black BMW 3 series that were traveling in opposite directions. A nine-year-old male passenger in the Polo received serious head and neck injuries and was airlifted from the scene to Alder Hey Children's Hospital.

"A 32-year-old female driving the BMW suffered serious internal injuries and is being treated at Aintree Hospital.

"I am appealing to anyone who witnessed the collision that has not already come forward to make contact with us, particularly if you may have seen the black Volkswagen Polo traveling away from Southport at this time.

"Anyone with information can contact police on 101 quoting log reference 1323 of August 18."

Trust bosses want patients to manage their own home care

OLDER people living with long term health conditions in West Lancs are being encouraged to manage their conditions at home thanks to a new system being introduced by the Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust.

The Trust has successfully won a license from NHS England to introduce a new innovative system that empowers people to manage their own health and well-being.

It will be one of a number of Trusts from across the country to use a 13 question assessment to assess the knowledge, skills and confidence people have in managing their own health.

This is a system that was developed and tested in the US with the aim of helping people to manage their health as a way of helping people lead better lives at a lower cost to the healthcare system.

Glyn Jones, Innovation Programme Manager at the Trust, said: "It's widely-recognised that people who feel in control, empowered and confident to take a lead role in their healthcare have better health outcomes.

The Trust is introducing this new system as a way of enhancing its person-centred care and is pleased that we've been successful in securing funding for this piece of work.

It's all about measuring people's confidence to ensure we're able to pitch training and support at the appropriate level.

"There is compelling evidence that people who recognise that they have a key role in self-managing their conditions and understand the impact they have on their own lives experience better health outcomes."

Glyn Jones, Innovation Programme Manager at Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust

'Essential' exercise to canvass voters is underway

RESIDENTS across West Lancs have been receiving important voter registration information.

A form asks people to check whether the information that appears on the electoral register for those living at their address is correct. Those who have yet to respond will receive a reminder form.

The exercise is part of the borough council's annual voter registration canvass. The aim of the form is to ensure that the electoral register is up to date and to identify any residents who are not registered so that they can be encouraged to do so.

The annual canvass is an opportunity for people to easily check whether they're registered. The council has said that "it's essential" for a healthy democracy that everyone who is entitled to vote is able to, and for those who need to, there is an online system of registration.

If people have changed address in the last year, they may need to register at their new address, so check the form as soon as it arrives.

If households do not respond to the form, further reminder letters will be issued, followed by a personal visit.

With Lancashire County Council Elections taking place in May 2017, this is an opportunity for residents to make sure they will be able to take part.

Being on the electoral roll also impacts on people's credit score as it provides valuable proof of their identity and address to lenders. If residents are not registered it can cause delays when they apply for credit, and some organisations may turn them down if they feel they cannot confirm who they are or where they live.

Kim Webber, Electoral Registration officer at West Lancashire Borough Council, said: "Anyone that wants to vote must be registered. To make sure you are able to have your say at the elections next year, simply check the form when it arrives and return it as promptly as possible.

"If you're not currently registered, we'll send you information explaining how to do this or you can just go online to apply to register at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote.

"It's particularly important that anyone who has moved address recently looks out for the form and checks whether they are registered."

NHS community health services procurement – 'the facts'

FROM reading Mr Joseph Welsh's letter (August 17, 2016), there appears to be some misconceptions about the CCG and the procurement process.

This response, therefore, attempts to helpfully clarify our position and address the specific questions Mr Welsh asks me publicly.

As your local health commissioner, we have a responsibility to review all NHS services we commission. This includes when contracts come to an end as is the case here. The ongoing re-procurement of community health services in West Lancashire is therefore part of standard practice for any clinical commissioning group (CCG).

The CCG is currently talking to four bidders about delivering community health services and urgent care services from April 2017. Two of these organisations are independent – here it is important to note that national procurement legislation requires us to enable both NHS and independent providers to compete, and then be evaluated against the same set criteria. The CCG itself must adhere to stringent guidelines and legislation.

We still work closely with our local hospital which will continue to be a major part of local health services and will remain integral as we move towards achieving our vision for joined up care.

Our aim is to improve community and local walk-in and out of hour's services, helping to prevent avoidable acute hospital attendance, relieving pressure on such a vital resource. Any services commissioned will continue to be delivered as part of the NHS and will remain free at the point of contact as with any provision of NHS care.

In terms of points raised by Mr Welsh about me personally; my salary, which is unrelated to this process, covers my role of chair and my other clinical responsibilities I carry out for the CCG, which also considers time taken away from my GP practice (the figure quoted in Mr Welsh's letter was incorrect – salary is £109,000 as mentioned in our Annual Report).

In response to his specific questions, I am responsible for commissioning local healthcare within the set financial allocation received from the government each year. I am voted in by local GPs and this is reviewed every four years. The CCG is a public organisation, so like me; it is accountable to NHS England and local residents/stakeholders.

If anyone would like some more facts about this process, we would welcome their interest via myview@westlancashireccg.nhs.uk or 01695 588 000 or www.westlancashireccg.nhs.uk/have-your-say/community-health-services/

Dr John Caine,
Chair of NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG).

Council should start charging student landlords council tax

INSTEAD of the possibility of cutting further jobs and services, why don't West Lancashire Borough Council start charging student landlords council tax?

Every hard working person has to pay this, so why do the council seem to allow these people to get away with it?

Not only would this be a form of increased revenue for the council but maybe it will help first time buyers in the search for an affordable home in Ormskirk instead of them getting snapped up for students.

Also do we really need a Mayor? I wonder how much that costs the tax payer each year?

S. King
Ormskirk

Think about your neighbours

I WOULD like to ask people in Skelmersdale not to leave their dogs out in the garden barking.

I have a Labrador and if she starts barking I take her in.

It is most annoying when people just put their dogs out and leave them while they go about their business.

Please think about your neighbours and be a good neighbour.

You know who you are.

PICTURE of the week

Ormskirk is getting ready to wave the chequred flag for this Sunday's fifth MotorFest event.

Picture by Martyn Snape.

Who is the girl in the picture?

I took the photograph (right) at a bicentenary event in Ormskirk in 1986 and I found it recently when I was sorting through my belongings.

It is a really lovely photograph I took on the day – one of many – but I do not actually know the young lady in the picture. I am hoping that she, or someone who knows her, would like to have it?

I have left it at the Champion offices on Lord Street and hope it will be reunited with the young lady – who will be around 30 years older now!

Eric MacIntosh,

It's a good idea to stop winter green waste collections

It is a good idea to stop winter green waste collections. It is not a good idea to charge £30 for a reduced service.

It is not a good idea to sell off our parks and open spaces, without our permission. They do not belong to the Council, they belong to us and the Council have a duty of care, paid for by the rates, to maintain them.

Every week the Champ reports another Council panacea, with seemingly nothing emerging as a positive innovation.

In any business, which the Council professes to be, the highest cost is the employees so to save money we should reduce the number of councillors. Easy Peasy.

Graham Walker,
UpHolland

OWL's views smack of hypocrisy... and a short memory!

I READ with interest how the leader of the protest group 'Our West Lancs' is complaining as to the length of time and dates being given over to the council's General Revenue Budget on proposed savings of £750,000.

The group's leader, Councillor Adrian Owens, suggests that the council does not want to hear the views of the public.

I think this smacks somewhat of hypocrisy and a short memory, when you think back, not too long ago, when he himself held the councils finance portfolio and the first the public knew about the 'golden handshake' of £340,000, paid to former chief exec Bill Taylor for his voluntary redundancy and the compulsory redundancy of 53 council employees along with the closure of front line services, was when it appeared on the front page of the Champion on July 20, 2011.

At the time Cllr Grant said the redundancies would affect about eight positions -they didn't and the Champion was right... it was 52 jobs that went.

This was when two managing directors jobs were created to facilitate the voluntary redundancy of Mr Taylor.

I suggest blatant cronyism. This move it was said at the time would save the council £165,000 a year.

Then, low and behold when Cllr Owens doesn't get the leadership of the Tory group, he starts to protest that we don't need two managing directors, that it isn't saving the council money after all.

He is also protesting that we have too many councilors. The question is why wasn't he protesting this when he was making 52 council workers redundant. Some of whom had to be re-employed after the failure of One Connect.

And let's not forget who were in charge in 2011, when WLBC signed the Contract with British Telecom's, One Connect, to run the council's front line services like ITC, Revenue and Benefits.

This failed partnership came to an end in 2014.

I think it would take a freedom of information request to find out at what cost.

Cllr. Owens is trying to make out that all these cuts to local services are solely the fault of the council when he knows full well it's as a result of local government funding being cut by the Conservative Central Government, which Cllr Owens would have been voting wholeheartedly for if he had not failed in his bid to become Tory MP for West Lancashire.

I would take Cllr Owens protestations and petitions against what after all are only proposals, with a large pinch of salt.

I would suggest the present administration are doing exactly what Cllr. Owens had to do but this administration are seeking ways to do it without the human misery of compulsory redundancies

H. Pennington
Ormskirk

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 25 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service Merseyside & surrounding areas and manager Louis Richards agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

Free trees for schools

PRIMARY schools in Ormskirk, Skelmersdale and West Lancashire are being offered free tree packs by the Woodland Trust to transform grounds and surrounding communities into tree-mendous spaces.

It follows a successful pilot which saw 2,760 trees delivered to schools in Lancashire this spring.

Youngsters are getting the chance to connect with nature, and can look forward to planting a copse or hedge, for a wild harvest, or a burst of year round colour.

Trees can create inspiring outdoor learning spaces, with educational as well as environmental benefits.

But if space within school grounds is in short supply, as well as trees, for eligible schools, there's help with finding somewhere else to plant; protection to help the trees grow; and on-line curriculum-linked resources to support lesson plans.

Owen Edwards is set to pursue a media career

A Star student set for media career

Media whizz kid, Owen Edwards, 18 achieved A*.A, A*in maths, film studies and history at Winstanley College in Wigan.

He filmed himself opening his results live on video-sharing website YouTube.

Owen was thrilled to get higher grades than he hoped for, securing his first choice university place in Film and Television Production at York University.

He has built a budding career in media alongside his studies at Winstanley College in Wigan.

At college, he has been involved in directing, presenting and editing numerous videos – while he has gained work filming and editing varioispeople's wedding videos in his spare time.

The former Ormskirk School student is also a model building enthusiast and set up his own YouTube channel called 'Quick Kits' in 2014, which teaches others how build scale models using the time lapse techniques he learnt at college and has more than 10,000 subscribers.

Model manufacturer Airfix has even contacted Owen about the Quick Kits channel and he is now in the process of negotiating terms of sponsorship.

He said: "My two years at college have been fantastic and I have built up a solid portfolio of media work, which will help me with my future plans.

Move More wants more West Lancashire participants

'Move More' scheme aims to help cancer sufferers in borough

STAFF at a fitness programme and activity advice service which helps people living with and beyond cancer become more active, are looking for new members.

Move More helps people with a diagnosis of cancer to find effective ways to get and stay active, no matter where they are on their cancer journey, including those who have completed treatment.

Launched in Autumn 2015, it is a joint initiative between Macmillan Cancer Support, Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust and NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG).

More than 60 people have used the service. The cancer specific classes take place on Mondays and Fridays from 1.15pm to 2.30pm and 2.30 to 3.45pm at Ormskirk Hospital.

One-to-one sessions also take place throughout the week.

Move More is run by Melanie Reardon, Macmillan physical activity manager, with Tim Horn, Macmillan physical activity physiotherapist and Ann Prescott, Macmillan physical activity assistant practitioner.

Melanie said: "We've had a really good response since launching Move More in September 2015.The service is designed to get people active to give them a better quality of life.

"Physical activity has lots of health benefits and also contributes to social and mental wellbeing. We'd love to see even more people at the sessions.

"We are also able to assess the needs of each individual and can often refer them to other services that could be of benefit."

Pauline Egan, from Skelmersdale, has been attending the fitness sessions since February.

She said: "Move More has been brilliant in increasing my fitness and in giving me more confidence. There is also the social side of things too. It's great to meet people and we like to catch-up each week."

If you live in West Lancashire, are affected by cancer, you can find out about "Move More" on 01695 656268 via email sohtr.odgh-physio@nhs.net or contact your GP.

Martin Mere news

Three African Crowned Crane eggs have successfully hatched at WWT Martin Mere Wetland Centre. This is only the fourth that the Centre has successfully reared an African Crown Crane chick since the Centre was established in 1975.

The crane chicks can be viewed with their parents from the aviary in the Weird or Wonderful (WOW) exhibit at the centre. The adult cranes were paired together in 2014 and are showing all the signs of being good parents by feeding the chicks insects and a special diet that we supply them of grower pellets, wheat and meal worms. The centre will leave the chick to be parent-reared in the aviary where it is protected from predators.

Grounds Manager, Steve Nasir, said: "We are absolutely delighted that we have these three crowned crane chicks - . These two adults have only been together for two years and they raised one chick last September, showing that it really was love at first sight. The chicks are doing really well and will soon be going for their first paddle in the shallow water. Come along and see the chicks over the bank holiday weekend whilst you are also completing our GIANT LEGO® brick animal trail and our nature explorer passport."

African Crowned cranes are most notable for their stiff crown of gold feathers on the top of their head. They are about 1m (3.3 ft) tall and weighs 3.5 kg (7.7 lbs) with a wingspan of 2 m (6.5 ft). The chicks in contrast is orange in colour with lovely black markings on their back.

In other news at the centre, six barn owls have fledged from the nest and we are expecting a magpie goose gosling to hatch any day. The kingfishers are continuing to show well everyday at the Ron Barker hide and the reserve is expecting migrants to be passing through over the next month in anticipation for the return of the pink-footed geese.

WWT Martin Mere Wetland Centre is open every day (except Christmas Day) from 9.30am to 6pm during summer months and parking is free of charge. Situated off the A59, it is signposted from the M61, M58 and M6. The Centre is also accessible via the Southport to Manchester and the Liverpool to Preston line by train from Burscough Rail Stations. Visit the web site http://www.wwt.org.uk/martinmere/ to find out what's on all year round at Martin Mere and the other eight WWT Wetland Centres.

Visit the web site www.wwt.org.uk/martinmere to find out what's on the reserve at the moment as well as all the upcoming events

Comic swans into chippy to surprise fans and staff

COMEDIAN Peter Kay was back in Southport last week... filming new episodes of his hit TV show Car Share.

And the Bolton funny man even had time to pop into a local chippy for dinner!

He was spotted by staff at the Swan Chip Shop on Stanley Street - a chippy frequented by many day trippers to the resort from West Lancs - with his Car Share co star Sian Gibson after taking a break from filming on Tuesday, August 16.

It's the second time Kay has been in Southport in recent months, having also shot some scenes for Car Share on Ainsdale Beach.

A spokesperson for the Swan Chippy told The Champion: "Peter had cod, chips and peas – he was eating with Sian Gibson, his fellow comedian and co star of Car Share

"His children were there too!"

Following the meal Peter was more than happy to pose for photos with fans and staff at the chip shop.

Children need to know where danger lurks

I'M wondering where all this recent fuss about dog licencing is coming from.

It wouldn't worry me particularly – though it would be yet another annoying thing to remember each year, and heaven knows who would be supposed to check up on it.

But, apart from vindictiveness on the part of those who really dislike being of the canine persuasion, what purpose would it serve?

As I understand the law, it is in any case an offence for your dog not to have an ID tag with the owner's phone number at least on it – so any dog should already be identifiable if it has committed a sin of one sort or another.

And since many pet dogs belong to elderly folk – often as their only companion – I'd bet a pound to a dog biscuit that pensioners' pooches would be exempt.

These days it is rare to find stray dogs wandering the streets – though when I was a boy there were quite a few, and that was in the days of dog licences.

Cats of course, can be a traffic hazard and, as I am told by keen gardeners, a menace.

Perhaps we should have cat licences too?

And what about caged birds, such as parrots?

They can, and do, escape and could be a danger to all kinds of things.

Let's licence them as well!

Don't we have enough rules and regulations as it is?

You can't do this, you can't keep that.

No left or right turns, no parking.

The 'elf and safety brigade really do have a lot to answer for.

No one would argue about the necessity of safety guards on machinery for instance, or the need to protect kiddies from the worst exposure to danger.

But excessive application of rules can have exactly the opposite long-term effect to that intended.

When I was a boy, our local playground had, for instance, proper big swings. Underneath there were ordinary paving slabs.

My friends and I each had his (or her) 'own' swing, and one feat we indulged in was to get our charges really going – and jump off at or about the high point of the swing. The one who landed furthest away, won.

Of course the dangers were either that you grazed your knees with a bad landing, or, if you were careless enough, the returning swig clouted you on the back of the head.

But it wasn't the odd bump or scrape that really worried you – you soon realised the danger and tried to avoid it – no, it was ripping your trousers.

Mum would have something to say about that – and it wouldn't be in a solicitor's letter to the council either!

But the thing was that you grew up with the knowledge that some things you encounter in life can be dangerous and painful.

These days it seems to me (and I was agreeably surprised when a paediatric nurse agreed with me) that we have youngsters growing up who have no fear of anything ever hurting them, because they were raised in a world where nothing ever could.

Now I don't expect many present day parents to agree with me on this.

But I would point out that many who are now of pensionable age grew up in this 'dangerous environment' and few of them, I think, were ever permanently damaged by it.

On the contrary – we knew that danger lurked - and how to avoid it.

live happy!

Slimming WORLD
touching hearts, changing lives

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Sponsored slimmers step out for charity!

Local slimmers have raised over £900 for Cancer Research U.K. after they laced up their trainers recently, and held their 'Steps for SMILES'.

Before joining Slimming World, many of the slimmers did very little, but after getting support to become more active, the West Lancashire slimmers and their Slimming World Consultants all managed to do the hour walk with big smiles on their faces.

The group also invited their friends and family members to join in. The event saw around 50 people take part and was aimed to raise awareness of how keeping a healthy weight can improve health, including reducing the risk of developing ten types of cancer, and raise vital funds for the CRUK.

The event was part of a wider national event running across all Slimming World groups in U.K. and Ireland and was not competitive, and those taking part could choose the distance they'd like to cover.

West Lancashire Team Developer Tina Whewell, says all the members thoroughly enjoyed taking part in Steps for SMILES. She says: "It was a fantastic event, everyone was so supportive of each other, just as they are whenever our groups gets together, and we saw young, old, male and female participants enter, all with a broad range of abilities and fitness levels. Entrants could run, walk, or skip – whatever they wanted – as long as they enjoyed it we didn't mind at all."

She continues: "I'm so pleased with how much we raised for the CRUK and I think the event showed people just how motivating being part of a Slimming World group can be. Many of my members wouldn't have dreamed of even wearing a pair of trainers before they lost weight, and now look at them! It's all thanks to the amazing support they give each other in group that has helped them to lose weight by eating more healthily and build their confidence and find more energy to move more each day. Now they're all fantastic role models to their friends and family.

Kim Wright, a member who has lost 4st 13.5lbs since January, says: "I took part in the event in memory of my nan. I used be so daunted just by the thought of exercise – I'd hated it since my school days. With Slimming World's Body Magic programme I learnt that the key is to start small and find something that you enjoy doing, and I've found that's the best way to keep active and lose weight at the same time as feeling absolutely fantastic. I now enjoy swimming, walking and cycling. What's important is that you do something almost every day. I definitely wouldn't have done something like this before I found Slimming World. Since losing weight though, I'm feeling much healthier, happier and more confident – I'm so proud of myself and I know my fellow group members, friends and family are too."

If you are interested in becoming slimmer, healthier and happier you can find details of your local Slimming World group in the attached advertisement.

Summer reading club for mini book lovers in West Lancashire

AVID young readers and their families can take part in a 'reading journey' at libraries across the area this Saturday (27 August).

The Lancashire Reading Journey Celebration Events for children aged four to 11 and their families will be held at libraries and museums across the county, when children will be able to have their photograph taken with one of the colourful cut-out characters that have featured in this year's Reading Journey.

Burscough Library will host a Dream Fairies themed event from 9.30am to 12.30pm while Tarleton Library staff will focus on the Word Sucking Vampire at their event from 9.30am to 1pm.

The Reading Journey runs until Saturday 24 September this year and is organised by Lancashire County Council.

It is free to take part and aims to keep children reading throughout the summer holidays. Joining in is simple, children just need to visit their local library and complete eight tasks over the summer, including reading books of their choice, visiting museums and taking part in activities.

Journey

On joining the Journey, children will receive a card listing 25 different activities.

To complete the quest they choose and take part in their favourite eight. This Journey Card will need to be taken when completing a task at a museum, so that it can be stamped.

After completing four tasks, children will be rewarded with a pencil and after completing all eight tasks they will receive a certificate and a pin badge.

Any books can be read, including factual, fiction, poetry, and books of jokes or picture books, stories on CD, e-books and audio downloads.

A free family visit to a Lancashire County Council museum for one child and two adults will be awarded to every child that takes part in the Journey.

County Councillor Marcus Johnstone

Report by Henry James

County Councillor Marcus Johnstone, cabinet member for environment, planning and cultural services, said: "The event is a fun way to keep children interested in the Reading Journey. It gives them an incentive to carry on, and rewards their participation so far.

"The important angle to this though is that it encourages children to keep reading and learning throughout their summer holidays."

For more information about the Lancashire Reading Journey visit your local library.

Youngsters head to Brussels for EU debate

The conference's patron Queen Mathilde of Belgium with young people at the event

YOUNG people from Lancashire have shared their views on why Europe needs to invest in children at a conference in Brussels.

The Eurochild 'Children's Rights Matter: Why Europe needs to invest in children's three-day conference, hosted at the Palace of Academies recently, was attended by over 270 participants including policy makers, professionals working with children and politicians. There were 60 children and young people from 34 different countries at the event.

Delegates representing the UK included four young people from Lancashire. Their attendance at the event was supported by a partnership between Lancashire County Council's Wellbeing, Prevention Early Help Young People's Service, UCLan and children's charity Barnardo's.

The conference focused on making sure that the rights of children and young people in areas including education, health promotion, participation and protection are safeguarded. Child poverty, children affected by migration and children in alternative care were among the main subjects on the agenda.

Report by Danielle Thompson

County Councillor Matthew Tomlinson, cabinet member for children, young people and schools, said: "I really feel that events like this are both valuable and important.

"Realising children's rights are the foundation of a resilient society. Getting not only policymakers and professionals, but also children and young people together to create solutions is a very sensible way to tackle issues. Well done to the four young people from Lancashire who went to the conference to have their say on these issues.

Nominations are still being taken for inspiring North West award

Report by Henry James

NOMINATIONS are still being taken to put forward the most inspiring people in the North West's deaf and deaf blind community for a coveted award.

West Lancs residents can nominate someone who inspires them for awards which celebrate people across the UK who are involved in providing a positive impact on the lives of some of the 11 million deaf and hard of hearing people living in the country.

A leading provider of British Sign Language (BSL) and other deaf and deaf blind qualifications in the UK, Signature, has announced that nominations for its eighth Signature Annual Awards have been extended to Friday 2 September.

Signature executive director Lindsay Foster said: "We are overwhelmed every year by the amazing stories that are uncovered through our awards and it gives us great pleasure in being able to celebrate the great work that is being done to help improve the lives of deaf people.

Education

"This year, the Signature Annual Awards will focus on 'educators', including new and experienced teachers of British Sign Language and teachers of the deaf, groups or individuals in the local community who create exciting learning opportunities for deaf and hearing impaired people, and business people who are improving customer service for deaf and deafblind people through staff training.

"We would like to ask as many people and organisations as possible to nominate so that we can celebrate those who dedicate their time to the increasingly important issue of improving communication between the growing deaf community and their hearing peers."

Each year the Signature Annual Awards recognise people and organisations working with deaf people across the nation, and the search is now underway across the North West to find nominees who have made an outstanding contribution to the deaf and deafblind community.

All nominees will receive a complimentary ticket to the awards, which will be held in January 2017 at Prospero House in London.

The awards are free to enter. For more information, visit signatureannualawards.org.uk

Champ team take on charity challenge

A TEAM of runners from the Champion Newspaper group are preparing to tackle the Southport Natterjack Seaside 10k run in honour of their cancer fighting colleague.

The group of 19 members of staff from the sales, editorial, production and accounting team at the Champion will take on the gruelling challenge on September 25 to raise vital funds for the Royal & Broadgreen hospitals in Liverpool – who helped to save the life of one of their colleagues, Steve Gainford.

Steve, 54, is currently recovering from prostate cancer and will himself take part in the run, which he hopes will raise £1,500 for the R-Charity.

R Charity is currently raising £10 million for the New Royal Liverpool Hospital to deliver world class technologies and cutting-edge research. Therefore ensuring earlier and more accurate diagnosis of illnesses whilst also providing outstanding patient environments.

Speaking to the Champion, Steve said: "I found out five years ago that i had prostate cancer – I went for some tests and then had to have a biopsy because of what my tests showed.

"The doctors decided to monitor the levels of cancer in my prostate and because they kept fluctuating, the decision was made for me to have an operation in March of this year.

"I was booked in for the op on March 8 and I was well looked after – when I went back for my results they said they were 75% certain they had it all but because the tumour had broken through the prostate wall they can't say more than that.

"It's not possible to sum up how happy and humbled I feel that the team at the Champ have come together to do this run and get as much money as possible for the R Charity.

"£1,500 is the target we would like to raise."

This year is the 12th anniversary of the Natterjack Seaside 10K.

When Natterjack Running took over the organisation of the race the distance was adjusted to the more popular 10km.

JOIN IN THE NATTERJACK SEASIDE 10K RUN

Now in its 12th year, the Natterjack Seaside 10k annual race, is taking place on 25th September 2016.

It's scenic route around Southport's Marine Lake and Promenade has been growing in popularity. 2015 saw over 900 runners take part and this year's race promises to be even better so now is your chance to get involved.

The Natterjack Seaside 10k race is for runners of all abilities as the route path is flat and makes for fast running. So whether you are competing with the aim of smashing your personal best or simply taking part to see how far you can run and raise some money for charity, a great atmosphere and fun are guaranteed.

If 10k is a little daunting, why not try the 2k fun run that is also taking place on the day. Training is something you may want to consider and the Natterjack Seaside website (www.natterjackseaside10k.com) has a weekly running plan, along with tips and hints to help you get in to shape in the run up to the race. The plan is an effective way of being able to run well on the day without it ever being daunting.

It is so simple to enter, just go to the website and register. Your race pack will be sent to you about ten days before the big day and will include your race number and info.

On the day, there will be prizes, goody bags and medals for all 10k finishers, free pre or post race massages, barbecue food, pre race warm up with pro fitness instructors and sponsored prizes for the first three men and women across the line. (see website for more details)

You can also opt to run for this year's Natterjack chosen charity which is Galloway's Society For The Blind - again more details can be found on the website. With entry fees starting from as little as £9 for the 2k race (£6 for children) there really is no excuse not to join in the fun on this fantastic day which has become such a popular event.

Maxine Peake to star in Tennessee Williams' classic

Royal Exchange to celebrate its 40th anniversary

Maxine Peake

MAXINE Peake opens the Royal Exchange's 40th anniversary season with her portrayal of iconic female protagonist Blanche DuBois in Tennessee Williams' 1947 Pulitzer Prize winning masterpiece A Street Car Named Desire.

This production sees Exchange artistic director Sarah Frankcom and long-term collaborator Peake join forces once again to tackle one of modern dramas greatest plays. The production opens at the Royal Exchange on September 8 and runs until October 15 .

In the New Orleans house of Stanley and Stella Kowalski, a visitor arrives. Debt has sunk the family home in Mississippi and Stella's fragile sister Blanche is coming to stay. As the summer heat floats up from the sidewalk and the liquor gets poured, Blanche invades her sister's marriage and ignites a dark and violent conflict with the brooding and bullish Stanley.

Maxine Peake is an associate artist at the Royal Exchange Theatre in Manchester. Most recently she played the title role in The Skriker (co-commission with MIF15) and her portrayal of Hamlet in 2013 was a huge critical success, other credits for the Exchange include The Children's Hour and Miss Julie.

Her outstanding performance of The Masque Of Anarchy was directed by Sarah Frankcom for MIF13. Other theatre credits include The Cherry Orchard, The Relapse and Luther (The National Theatre) and Mother Theresa IS Dead (Royal Court).

RADA-trained Maxine Peake has had a prolific run of top quality television dramas in recent years including BAFTA nominated Silk, The Village, Room At The Top, Hancock & Joan, The Street and Shameless. She can be seen this spring as Titania in A Midsummer Night's Dream adapted by Russell T. Davies for the BBC as part of the Shakespeare 400 celebrations. Her film credits include Theory Of Everything and Carol Morley's The Falling.

Sarah Frankcom joined the Royal Exchange as literary manager, she became sole artistic director in 2014.

Take a trip with group as they present musical Our Day Out

FROM Wednesday, August 31 to Saturday, September 3 including a Saturday matinee, the Southport Dramatic Club Youth Theatre are presenting the musical version of Willy Russell's classic comedy, Our Day Out, directed by Deborah Bloom.

From the award-winning author of Blood Brothers and Educating Rita, this play has been a mainstay of English comedy for more than 30 years and this updated and extensively revised version brings a new level of fun with additional toe-tapping, sing-along musical numbers while retaining the poignancy of the original.

The Progress class of pupils in an inner city Liverpool school are taken on a coach trip to Alton Towers by their teacher, Mrs. Kay. The fun begins when another teacher, Mr. Briggs, decides to accompany them. Mr. Briggs is a strict disciplinarian but handling these children isn't easy and they start to misbehave the minute the coach leaves.

Dagga is played by Matt Higginson, who starred as Romeo in Romeo & Juliet for the company last season, and Chantel Gregory is Taylor.

There is a discount for students – for more information call the Southport Little Theatre Box Office on 01704 530521/530460.

It's hard not to become addicted to the instant wallop of supercharger

Life On Cars
DAVID SIMISTER
www.lifeoncars.co.uk

SUPPOSE you're about to sink half a million quid into a nice house. There's a sizeable swimming pool, a huge kitchen with an AGA cooker, and an enormous dining room – but the entire upper floor is out of action because it's been filled with scaffolding to make the building a bit stiffer.

Not only would it make a particularly bad episode of Grand Designs but chances are you'd walk away from the deal after a particularly shirty conversation with the estate agent. Which is pretty much how I felt after trying a new breed of car for the first time. Ladies and gentleman, meet the extreme hatchback.

The souped up supermarket chariot in question was the first iteration of the MINI Cooper's more aggressive sibling, which I spent a couple of hours at the helm of last week.

The MINI Cooper S John Cooper Works GP has the name, spec and credentials to really get dyed-in-the-wool driving fanatics frothing at the mouth - but in the real world it's a deeply frustrating set of wheels. It's hard not to get addicted to the instant whallop of the supercharger – unlike a turbo, the power's always there the second you need it – and the steering is pin-sharp and effortlessly talkative. It is huge fun to drive.

But you get all that with a regular MINI Cooper S anyway – and without the big sacrifices the GP asks you to make.

I'll forgive the ride being harder than Bear Grylls, but glance in the rear-view mirror and where the back seats should be is a single strut brace, literally pulling the two sides of the car together to make it tauter.

It makes it childishly good fun on a track day, but in the real world having a two-seater hatchback is a pointless as our imaginary house full of scaffolding.

The same goes for the old Renault Megane R26R too, which eschews back seats for a roll cage. Brilliant at Brands Hatch, but no so great for giving your mates a lift.

Then there's the Abarth 695 Tributo Ferrari, which did have back seats but was a still essentially a £30,000 Fiat 500.

All of these cars have one problem; the Toyota GT86, which is far more fun for less money.

I love hot hatches because they give normal people the chance to embarrass sports cars while doing the school run – a Golf GTI has all the fun and feistiness you could ever ask for, and it has five doors, lots of seats, a big boot and a sensible starting price.

Stripping out seats and asking silly money is why extreme hatchbacks, for all their Nurburgring lap times, don't work in the real world.

Give me a Fiesta ST any day. For under 18 grand you get 200bhp, sublime handling, a revvy engine that howls with delight every time you put your foot down – oh, and there's room for you and four of your fellow car nuts. Now that's what I call a hot hatch.

David Simister is features editor of Classic Car Weekly.

David reckons the Ford Fiesta ST is the best hot hatch on offer at the moment

Visitors will flock to the Ormskirk MotorFest

DON'T forget that Ormskirk will be packed with high performance cars and bikes throughout this Sunday (August 28).
Former Top Gear presenter Steve Berry will be commentating and judging the concours entries at this year's MotorFest, where more than 300 vehicles will go on the show and the one-way system will be closed off for parades.
Make sure you head to the town centre from 11am to catch the action.

Linnets taste victory in FA Cup

Parkgate 1
Burscough 4

BURSCOUGH picked up their first win of the season in the Preliminary Round of the FA Cup.

The Linnets, who are without a win in their opening two games in the league, will face Maine Road at home in the next round.

Elliot Nevitt opened the scoring on 34 minutes and the Linnets went 2-0 ahead five minutes later when Jake Townsend struck home.

Parkgate clawed one back on 52 minutes when Lebrun Mbeka reduced the deficit to 2-1.

Nevitt grabbed his second goal to restore Burscough's two goal advantage on 69 minutes to cap off a man of the match winning display.

The Linnets capped off the win with a fourth goal on 77 minutes through Dennis Sherriff.

Burscough will hope to pick up their first league win of the season this Friday (August 26) when they travel to Ramsbottom Town.

They are then at home to Prescot Cables on Monday, August 29 at 3pm.

Skem lose after Lowe gives them early lead

Mickleover Sports 3
Skelmersdale United 1

SKELMERSDALE are still without a win this season after throwing away an early lead, writes Neil Leatherbarrow.

Benito Lowe slotted home with the inside of his foot from about six yards after three minutes to put them ahead.

The hosts levelled on 18 minutes through Brodie Litchfield with an effort with Martin Fearon getting a hand to the shot, but being unable to divert it away.

The game became scrappy with the wind not helping any efforts to play football.

Lowe was doing a good job in the Skem midfield, with the wind at his back he had an ambitious shot from the halfway line that was kept out by home goalkeeper Lewis King.

The game changed in the 43rd minute when Mickleover won a free-kick about 25 yards from goal, and Baskerville pitched the kick right in front of Fearon and it went into the net.

The home side sealed the match on 56 minutes when a long ball over the top went to Baskerville who squared it to Litchfield andthe striker had a simple task to score.

Skelmersdale could not break Mickleover down and with the one opportunity they had, Almond put Callum Mahoney in on goal, but King pulled off a superb diving save.

After the match Tommy Lawson said: "I was disappointed with the performance and I know the players were too, it is unusual to say, but I cannot think of one player that did himself real justice today. We had a little chat after the match, the players know they have to do better and I am sure they will."

Skelmersdale were due to host Coalville Town last night (Tuesday) before travelling to Stafford Rangers on Saturday.

They have an away game at Ashton United on Monday, August 29 at 3pm.

Two tough games ahead

SKELMERSDALE United face two tough Bank Holiday weekend fixtures.

The first game will see them travel to Stafford Rangers on Saturday, August 27 and then to Ashton United on Monday, August 29, both games kicking off at 3pm.

Both opponents are expected to be among the top teams in the Evo-Stik Premier Division table.

Stafford won Division One South of the Evo-Stik last season but are known as one of the big names of non-league football having won the FA Trophy at Wembley more than once.

Monday's trip to Ashton is a little daunting as Skelmersdale have not won there for a long time.

Plus Ashton have reached the play-off positions for promotion for the last two seasons and are expected to do at least that well again.

Louise's Learner Loan pays dividends!

Louise Baker wanted to progress her career in Law and made a great choice by studying an Access course at West Lancashire College, funded by an Advanced Learner Loan.

Louise said "Having worked for a legal firm I wanted to further my career prospects in the Law sector. The Access course has provided me with the level 3 qualification required to progress onto a degree.

It's a great course if you know you want to go to university to further your career but need help to get there. I paid for the course using an Advanced Learner Loan. The loan process is really simple and it's written off when I complete my degree.

I have really enjoyed the course, it's hard work, but I have received lots of support and encouragement.

Louise Baker

The Access course has provided me with the chance to study for my Legal Practice Course (LPC) in the future and with five conditional offers to study Law at University this September I can truly say this is one of the best decisions I have ever made."

Advanced Learning Loans make studying more affordable, and if you take out a Loan to do an Access to Higher Education programme and you subsequently go on to successfully complete a higher education course/ degree you won't have to pay back your loan!
Find out more, call Course Enquiries on 01695 52300.

If you are 19+ you could be eligible for an Advanced Learner Loan!

Advanced Learner Loans are intended to help learners pay for their course*.

The amount of money available depends on your course. It's easy to apply, there's no credit check and your household income isn't taken into account.

You won't have to pay anything back until you've finished your course and are earning over £21,000 a year. Repayments are linked to what you earn, not what you owe.

Learners who complete an Access to HE Diploma course that's funded by an Advanced Learner Loan, and who go on to complete an eligible HE qualification, can have any outstanding balance of their Advanced Learner Loan written off.
